

2019 Call to Artists – “Memory” Art Show

The Arts Council is approaching its 50th year of operation in the Creston Valley. We have been promoting the arts through theatre, visual arts and cultural events, since 1969 creating history and memory within the Valley.

Memory lends itself perfectly as a subject and tool for art and artists and can take form in a variety of ways; history, sensations, images, and emotions. The concept of memory lends itself perfectly as a tool for the artists to launch ideas within their work.

For this show we ask that you submit a current artwork, 2-D or 3-D, where the idea of memory informs your work. You can interpret your work through your subjective mind, through an objective fact or a local event(s). You can also tell a story through your artwork about personal or cultural memory.

Memory Show will be on display and sale, January 4 to Feb 15, 2019

Location: Chamber of Commerce

Set up: Friday January 4 at 10:30 am in the Chamber of Commerce

Wine and cheese reception and Silent Auction: January 11, 4-6 pm.

2-D work must be ready to hang.

For more info go to our website www.crestonvalleyartscouncil.ca for submission forms. Submission forms are under the “opportunities” drop down menu.
